Foreword

In every year-book, on a page similar to this, the editor and the staff express their desire to bring to you the happenings of the year; such a desire do we bring on this page of the 1950 NAPSONIANA. When these pictured hours spent in work, in play, and in leisure are but a memory, may our book recall them to you from out of the past; and for the future, give you this message:

The Salutation of the Dawn

LISTEN to the Exhortation of the Dawn!
Look to this Day!
For it is Life, the very Life of Life.
In its brief course lie all the
Varieties and Realities of your Existence:
The Bliss of Growth,
The Glory of Action,
The Splendor of Beauty:
For yesterday is but a Dream,
And To-morrow is only a Vision;
But To-day well lived makes
Every Yesterday a Dream of Happiness,
And every To-morrow a Vision of Hope
Look well therefore to this Day!
Such is the Salutation of the Dawn.

Editor.

HELEN AMENDOLA

SUE ANDREWS

Sue is one of our Napsites who claims she's "just a lil' ole country gal, come to the big city", but if that be true, she has certainly adapted herself well and has found a place in the heart of each and every girl in school.

Everyone admires Sue's large green eyes, envies her diminutive waist, and covets her beautiful white blouses.

Sue came to Naps in her junior year, and this year she served as treasurer of the Spanish 1 Club.

GWENDOLYN BAKER

Gwen came to Naps in her junior year. She abounds with pep and energy, and her work with the Red Cross is an evidence of her loyal enthusiasm and school spirit at Naps.

We know that with these enviable characteristics, Gwen will travel far on the ladder to success. Happy going, Gwen, and best of luck.

HELEN AMENDOLA

Helen came to Naps in her junior year and immediately won the love of every girl in school. As a boarder in the dormitory, her wit and genial disposition have made her a favorite.

Dramatic and athletic, Helen's talents have earned her membership in the Cecilian Club and on the "B" team in basketball. She has also served as Literary Editor of the 1950 NAPSONIANA.

The school has laughed more often since Helen came to be with us. We're going to miss you, Heletia. Keep the world smiling.

SUE ANDREWS

GWENDOLYN BAKER

Myrtle Bennett

Andrea Bethea

ANN BROCKMAN

The Senior Class boasts of five lovely Anns, and certainly Ann Brockman is one of the loveliest.

One of our six year girls, Ann took part in many of the school activities. During her high school years she played on the class basketball teams, and added a lot of fun to the games. She was present at all of the Varsity games and poured heart and soul into her job of being cheer-leader.

Ann, you've been a good Napsite, and we know that you're going to be even more successful in college. Goodbye, pal.

MYRTLE BENNETT

There is a certain "air" about Myrtle —an air of neatness and correctness that is always present. That quality of orderliness is also to be found in her manner and voice, as well as in her immaculate appearance. It certainly all adds up to "charm", and we couldn't say anything lovelier about Myrtle.

Her chief interest lies in music, and she has been a valued member of the Glee Club.

Lucky days ahead, Myrtle.

ANDREA BETHEA

Andrea came to us from O'Keefe in her sophomore year and has made numerous friends in school.

An ardent supporter of the Varsity, Andrea has attended every game, lending encouragement in success or defeat. Always cheerful and happy, she enjoys life immensely, and is always ready to join in the fun and frolic.

We know success lies in your power. Good luck to you, Andrea.

PHYLLIS CAVERLY

BETTY ANNE COFER

This lovable girl has been with us since our seventh grade. Commuting from Tucker, Georgia, she still made herself "one of the gang".

Betty Anne has played on all of the class basketball teams, and this year was a member of the Varsity, proving herself a loyal friend to all the members. In her junior year she was the Junior Duke at Mardi Gras.

Thanks for being so much help in decorating our Senior Hall. Good luck, B.A., and happy days ahead.

PEGGY LOU DAVIS

As gentle as a summer breeze—and as welcome—is our quiet, soft-spoken Peggy Lou. She has ever been most kind and thoughtful in trying to do even more than her part for our class. Much of the success of re-decorating our Senior Hall was due to her untiring spirit, and faithfulness.

'Bye, Peg. You carry the good wishes of all the class wherever you go.

PHYLLIS CAVERLY

Phyllis said goodbye to her Chattanooga friends, and came to Naps in her seventh grade. For six years her honors have been numerous and her friends unlimited, all of which has been evidenced by the many class offices to which she has been elected.

This year she held the highest office, president of the Student Body, for the first semester. She was also Editor-in-Chief of the 1950 NAPSONIANA, a forward on the Varsity, a member of Pi Sigma Kappa, Quill and Scroll, Spanish II Club, and Rabun Gap-Nacoochee Guild.

To Phyllis's name can be added all the qualities that go to make up an ideal girl: sweet, modest, courteous, friendly, scholarly, athletic, responsible, spiritual, loyal, and able.

We're going to miss you in all departments of our school, Phil. Success and happiness is our wish for you.

BETTY ANNE COFER

PEGGY LOU DAVIS

Ann Fife

Carolyn Flemming

NATALIE HULL

One of our most beloved and most amusing Napsites, Natalie has certainly made her presence known throughout her high school years. She is one of those people that everyone loves-always cheerful and always on hand to help a friend. She has the happy faculty of being able to fit into any group, and is equally loved by the teachers and mothers, as well as by the students.

Natalie served as a cheer leader in her sophomore and junior years. She was also assistant business manager on the 1949 Napsoniana.

Goodbye, Nat. Your friendliness and happy laughter have endeared you to us all.

ANN FIFE

Ann came to us in her sophomore year and is undoubtedly one of the best-loved and most dependable girls in our class. With a wonderful disposition, an ever-ready smile, two mischievous big brown eyes, and a willingness to work for her class, she has won her way into the heart of every girl in school.

This year Ann served as president of the Naps Chapter of Rabun Gap Nacoochee Guild, of which there are more than a hundred members. She was also elected treasurer of the Senior Class for the second semester, and has held similar class offices throughout her high school years at Naps.

We'll never forget the pretty picture you made as leading lady of our winning Junior float, "Maytime". We all regretfully say goodbye, Fifi, and wish you every happiness.

CAROLYN FLEMMING

Quiet dignity becomes Carolyn. One of our more studious girls, she is interested in some of the finer things of life; for instance, classical music and the Romance languages.

Carolyn is an accomplished pianist, and an enthusiastic student of French. Last year she played on the junior class team, and was also a member of the "B" team.

We are going to miss your cheerfulness, Carolyn. We know it will ever surround you with a host of friends.

BARBARA ISON

JACKIE JOSEY

Jackie wasn't satisfied with a diploma from an eleven-grade school so she entered Naps as a senior in order to do some post-graduate work. We are glad she came to us, for she was quick to catch the spirit of the school, and in just the one short year, added much to its many activities.

Her election to vice-presidency of the Senior Class for the second semester, membership in the Cecilians, manager of the varsity, and membership on the Athletic Board in charge of archery, evidenced her popularity with the whole class.

As you go on to higher fields of learning, Jackie, may success always attend you.

CAROLE LITA KEITH

Carole Lita came to us in the eighth grade, and for the five years retained her place in the heart of every member of the class. She is truly one of our most attractive and admired girls.

She served Naps well as a cheer-leader for the Varsity, and carried the lead in the Class Day exercises during her junior year. Throughout the years she held many class offices, and was elected treasurer of the Senior Class for the first semester.

Naps will miss your impetuous laugh and friendly smile. Keep sweet, C. L.

BARBARA ISON

Barbara came to us in her sophomore year, and we welcomed this little girl from O'Keefe who looks as if she has just stepped out of Mademoiselle. For no matter where she is, even in gym class, Barbara always looks "cool, calm, and unruffled".

Barbara has a vivacious personality, and during her senior year, her antics as a cheer-leader were worth the price of admission to the games.

We'll all envy Barbara's roommate at college next year with such a fabulous collection of cashmere sweaters to borrow from.

SO LONG, H. B. Love and luck!

ANNE LYON

Anne was with us when we all started out together in the seventh grade. She has been a loyal Napsite, and through her generosity, kindliness, and sweet disposition, she has justly won the love of all of the girls in school.

Anne was manager of the Varsity, a job which entailed much work and responsibility. In her junior and senior years she was the class photographer on the Napsoniana Staff.

Always ready to lend a helping hand, you will be missed at Naps, "Leone".

MARY KENT

Mary is one of our six year girls, who beyond being a splendid student, set an athletic record of playing her four high school years on the Varsity, this year serving as captain of the team.

Besides being on the Athletic Board in charge of basketball, she was the able Business Manager of the 1950 Napsoniana. The school will long remember her services, for they have been many and all well done.

GOOD luck, Mary, in whatever you do; we know that you'll give of your best.

BARBARA KONKLE

Parlez-vous Francais? Ask Barbara. She does, tres bien!

Barbara has been the "pride and joy" of her French teachers, and the excellent grades which won for her Pi Sigma Kappa honors in her junior year, made her a pride and joy to all of her other teachers, too. But all of this wisdom hasn't kept her from being a friend to all of the girls.

Graduation will mean the loss to Naps of this good student and fine girl. We congratulate the lucky college in which she enrolls. May success always be yours, Barbara!

BETTY MACDONALD

DIANNE MALTBY

Here's the little girl who put the pep in the pepper. It just seems as if a party has more life, and a meeting is more fun if Dianne is there.

For three years the halls of Naps have rung with Dianne's gaiety and light-heartedness while they whispered of her mischief. However, she served Naps well as a cheer leader in her junior year, and as a guard on the Varsity this year.

With her laughing eyes and twinkling smile, Dianne seems to represent the lighter side of life. There will be many times when just her name will bring a smile, particularly when it gets a little dull.

We love you and are going to miss you. Happy landing!

JO BETH MEADOWS

Jo Beth has been with us since the eighth grade and has proven herself to be a good Napsite and a loyal friend.

She was a charter member of the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee Guild, and a member of the Bible Club and the Spanish Club during her junior and senior years.

A sweeter, more lovable girl than Jo Beth is hard to find. These same traits which have won her innumerable friends at Naps, will, no doubt, continue to do so in years to come.

The best always, Jo!

BETTY MacDONALD

Betty, who has always exemplified the true Naps spirit, is one of our six year girls. Throughout all these years she has maintained a high scholastic average.

Making the Varsity in her freshman year, she has retained her position as forward through her senior year, at the same time being very active in other sports.

To prove their affection and esteem, her classmates elected her president of the Senior Class for both the first and second semesters.

Noted for her wonderful sense of humor, and undying loyalty to Sigma Chi, Betty will be remembered and loved by every girl at Naps. Our good wishes go with you, Betty Mac, wherever your path may lead you.

ANN PARSONS

The 1950 Napsites were twice fortunate in having two Parsons—our red-headed Anne, and raven-haired Betty Belle.

Anne has many talents including music, art, and sports. In the six years that she has been a boarder at Naps, much of the success of our Mardi Gras' and Varsity games have been due to her enthusiasm and ability. As Art Editor of the 1950 NAPSONIANA, she has labored long and successfully.

Good luck, Anne, in your plans for the future. May you meet with success.

SARA MOSS

Three years ago Sara came to us from O'Keefe, and instantly her red hair set fire to the heart of every girl. With a smile and a hearty greeting for everybody, she has lighted the way for happier days for everyone at Naps.

For two years she has been a valuable member of the Varsity, playing the position of guard. This year she was on the Athletic Board in charge of softball. She was also elected president of the Spanish II Club for the first semester.

You've been a good pal. So long, Chum. May happiness follow you everywhere!

MARGARET PAGE

Lend an ear to her witty remarks and glimpse her jovial countenance and you will understand how, in her one brief year at Naps, Margaret has won the friendship of all the girls.

She has an inexhaustible stock of stories, and they ever brighten the lives of those about her.

Farewell, and a happy life to you, "Mae".

BETTY BELLE PARSONS

ANNE PATJENS

Anne joined our class in the eighth grade and all through the years has proven in her mischievous way to be a friend indeed. Never has there been a time that she couldn't be counted on to do a kindness to the rest of us poor mortals here in school.

She was a member of the Bible Club, and a news editor on the Senior Reader Staff during her sophomore, junior, and senior years. Without her help we could never have decorated our Senior Hall. The future Varsities will miss her loyal support at their games.

Happy hunting, Anne, and lots of luck.

CLAIRE RANDOLPH

Our lovely Claire, who always looks as if she were ready to model for the latest issue of Vogue, is one of the most attractive girls in our class. For this reason she was elected to be one of the Maids in the Class Day exercises during her sophomore year, and was leading lady of the Sophomore float at Mardi Gras.

Claire, we all wish you worlds of happiness, and the best of luck, always.

BETTY BELLE PARSONS

Betty Belle, our other Parsons of whom we're proud, is the brunette beauty, ever pleasing to the eye; but even more so, her warm smile and friendly manner have endeared her to the heart of all her many classmates at Naps.

This year she was a member of the Varsity, was president of the French 11 Club the second semester, and was a Herald in Mardi Gras.

Not only the dormitory, but all of the school, has learned to love you in these two years, Betty Belle. Keep pitchin'!

ANNE PATJENS

CLAIRE RANDOLPH

GAYLE RICHARDS

PATSY ROBERTSON

FARRAR SCHULTZ

"Hair of gold, and eyes of blue—." Farrar has both, plus a sunny disposition which brings to our mind, "Pretty is, as Pretty does." Farrar always "does" pretty.

But Farrar goes further too, for she was elected to Pi Sigma Kappa during her junior year, and also to Quill and Scroll, international society for high school journalists. This ability with a willingness to work, has made her a valuable member of the Senior-Reader Staff.

Farrar is one of our six year girls, and her poularity through the years has been proved by her numerous class offices.

So long, Bettikins; we shall miss you and your jolly disposition.

GAYLE RICHARDS

Among our many celebrities at Naps there is one girl known not only in Atlanta, but all over the South. This girl is Gayle Richards, one of the outstanding swimmers in the Atlanta Swimming Association.

However, swimming is not Gayle's only achievement, for she faithfully cheered the Naps Varsity for several years, played on the class teams, and earned points for her Junior Class by winning the badminton tournament. This year she was a valuable guard on the Varsity and was on the Athletic Board in charge of swimming.

When Gayle is a famous Olympic title holder, Naps will be proud to say, "We knew her when . . . " But to us, she'll always be "good ole Gayle!"

PATSY ROBERTSON

One of the quietest and most unassuming girls in the class is our beloved Pat. What's more, she has never showed a lack of dependability and eagerness to work when she was called upon. How we do admire her for her determined spirit.

You have made many friends at Naps, Pat, and we all wish you luck and happiness.

BOBBYE JEAN SLATER

MARGARET STARR

This lovely girl with the beautiful blonde hair and cheerful disposition came to us just last year from Henry Grady, and her friendliness and pleasing personality have made us wish she had been here longer.

Margaret has been a member of the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee Guild for two years and a member of Spanish I Club her senior year. Volleyball is her favorite sport.

"Rusty," we hope you will always be just as sweet and happy as you have been here at dear old Naps. Good-bye, and good luck!

JOY TASKER

Another of our six year students, Joy has attained honors in all fields of scholastic and literary activities. Soft-spoken and sweet to everyone, she has also exhibited dynamic qualities that have carried her to high achievement in all of her school work. Elected in her junior year to Quill and Scroll, and to Pi Sigma Kappa, honor society, this year she has ably edited the Senior-Reader, and given us a paper that few schools could excel.

We think that any college which is fortunate enough to get Joy, should be the envy of all its contemporaries. We know that success will go with you, and we wish you worlds of luck, Joy.

BOBBYE JEAN SLATER

One of the most versatile girls in our class is Bobbye Jean. One of our boarding girls, Bobbye has brought joy to her roommates and unalterable pleasure to her teachers, in the four years she has been at Naps.

Her excellent work as a student accorded her Pi Sigma Kappa honors in her junior and senior years. As a member and president of the Cecilians she has shown marked dramatic ability. She has held various class offices in which she has demonstrated qualities of leadership. Athletic also, she has been a member of the Varsity all four years.

An "all around" girl—we are proud of our Bobbye. May the best ever be in reach of your hand. Farewell, B. J.

Barbara Thompson

Edith Tribble

NELL WARREN

The gay twinkle in Nell's eye, and her cheerful "Hi there!" have made every one love her during her two years at Naps as a boarder in the dormitory.

Evidence of her popularity was her election to Student Body President for the second semester last year, and Junior Marshal at the Class Day exercises. This year she was president of the Athletic Association, and served as co-captain of the Varsity.

Good luck, Nell; we know your future will be bright.

BARBARA THOMPSON

Another gift to Naps from O'Keefe in her sophomore year was Barbara Thompson. Always having a smile for everyone, Barbara made herself popular with all of the girls. She has served on the Senior-Reader Staff two years and this year gave the Naps gossip in the column "Napsitement". During the first semester she was treasurer of the Spanish 11 Club, and was a member of the Rabun-Gap Nacoochee Guild.

Success and happiness, "Hobo"! We'll be thinking of you.

EDITH TRIBBLE

Being the oldest girl in point of years at Naps, Edith has been a real asset to our class. Her quiet manner has endeared her to every girl in school, and the help she rendered every year at Mardi Gras will always be remembered.

With Edith's graduation, Naps will lose a student who has been loyal and true blue. We wish you all the luck in the world, Edith. May happiness be yours.

SHEILA WESLEY

One of the hardest workers when there's work to do, radiating cheer when everything seems to be blue, friendly, loyal, and sincere to all of her classmates, truly Sheila is one of our most beloved girls.

This year she was elected captain of the class basketball team, and was a member of the "B" team.

The future Varsities will miss your support, Sheila. Every wish for your success and happiness.

CLASS WILL

Fulton County,
State of Georgia.

We, the Seniors of 1950, being of unsound mind due to so much study, and weak memory caused by trying to remember so many mathematical equations, Shakespearian lines, and chemical formulas, do hereby on this day, of this month, of this year, make, state, and publish our last will and testament.

Section I. On our beloved faculty we bestow our good wishes because they made such efforts to educate us. (Their efforts, we fear, were in vain.)

Section II. At this time we will to our parents our humble appreciation for endeavoring to keep us in spending money.

Section III. To the undergraduates we reluctantly leave the divine privileges accorded us in the library, in the cafeteria, and in the gym.

Section IV. To the Class of '51 we leave our studious habits, quiet and co-operative ways, and the portals of Senior Hall for their comfort and elevation.

Item 1—To Mary Frances Stubbs we will the literary ability of Helen Amendola, to use in working on the 1951 NAPSONIANA.

Item 2—To Joanne Chastain the quiet manner of Myrtle Bennett.

Item 3—To Marianne Brooks the male admirers of Peggy Lou Davis and Jo Beth Meadows whom they so often discussed in Senior Hall.

Item 4—To Carolyn Alford, who so much needs the same, the encyclopaedic brain of Jackie Josey.

Item 5—Barbara Konkle wills all the knowledge she has gained in the study of French to Ann Morrow.

Item 6—Ann Brockman, fearing lonely years ahead for Nancy Camp, does will and bequeath to her all her boy friends, pals, and companions, but prefers to keep her Buddy.

Item 7—Gayle Richards and Betty MacDonald will the blissful harmony which has existed between them to Harriet Childs and Suzanne Brown.

Item 8—To Gwen McLeroy is willed the raised eye-brow of Farrar Schultz.

Item 9—To Anne Prater, the wavy hair of Edith Tribble.

Item 10—Knowing her need for same, Betty Belle Parsons wills her black hair and pretty face to Betty Ann Price.

Item 11—To Pat Flowers and Joan Christopher go the witty remarks of Margaret Page.

Item 12—To Deborah Wynn the pleasing personality of Sue Andrews.

Item 13—To Carol Carson the letter-writing ability (no joke) of Barbara Ison.

Item 14—To Leland Branch the oodles of stuffed animals of Nell Warren, who hopes Leland will take care of her zoo.

Item 15—Natalie Hull leaves to Patsy Rosser all of the Tech Sigma Chi functions for 1950-51, fearing she would not otherwise be able to attend any of them.

CLASS WILL

Item 16—To Suzanne Brown is willed Mary Kent's reputation as a gold digger (as it applies to getting money for the 1950 NAPSONIANA). The honor and the job she reluctantly (?) gives up.

Item 17—To Margaret Jones the mischievousness of Dianne Maltby.

Item 18—To Margaret Strauss is willed the Chemistry Lab Book of Sara Moss who says: "Happy explosions, Margaret."

Item 19—To Barbara Davenport, Gwen Allison, and Margaret Mowry—Ann Patjens gladly leaves her sentiment for test tubes which are always blowing up.

Item 20—Carole Lita Keith leaves all the Tom's and Harry's to Mickey Haynie, hoping she'll not mind the breaking up of the conventional trio by keeping a certain Dick.

Item 21—Pat Robertson wills to all future Napsites her loyalty and determined spirit.

Item 22—Bobbye Jean Slater wills to Margaret Linch her Thespian ability hoping she will use same in future Naps plays.

Item 23—Claire Randolph leaves to Dottie McGowan her little a'mmm which caused so much concern in class rooms and chapel. Be careful, Dottie.

Item 24—Gwen Baker leaves her introductory "whenever's" and questionable grammar to Sara Lou Cowan. (A great heritage, Sarah Lou.)

Item 25—To Laura Grace Thomas is willed the poise, charms and graces of Anne Lyon and Sheila Wesley.

Item 26—To Betty Fellows go the golden tresses of Margaret Starr.

Item 27—Carolyn Flemming leaves her deep strong voice to Pat Calhoun.

Item 28—Ann Parsons and Betty Ann Cofer will to Barbara Ward and Jane Fraser their positions as guards on the Varsity.

Item 29—Ann Fife leaves that twinkle in her eye and her ready smile to Pat Boles and Frances Staten.

Item 30—To Camille Hamilton is willed the ability to say "what she thinks when she thinks it" as exercised by Andrea Bethea.

Item 31—Barbara Thompson wills to Joan Gossett the editorship of the society column in the Senior-Reader. Give them all the gossip, Joan.

Item 32—From Joy Tasker is willed the editorship of the Senior-Reader, to any aspiring Junior, with all good wishes for her success.

Item 33—To Mary Brooke is willed the loyalty, friendship, and cooperation always given to Phyllis Caverly.

And now, having disposed of all our desirable possessions, we do put our hand and seal on this will, this last day, of the last month, of our last year, at Napsonian School.

CRYSTAL

Tonight I have been seized with a desire to know what has become of all my class-mates, none of whom I have seen since the night of graduation away back in 1950. It is again the thirtieth of May, 1970, "and surely in this long lapse of years," I thought, "these girls have all developed into fine women and have made their marks in the world."

With memories surging in my brain, tonight I went to my crystal ball which I purchased in India many years ago. It was there, from an old Hindu, that I learned the art of crystal gazing. I removed the richly embroidered cloth which always covers it and then gazed steadfastly into the clear ball, recalling each member of the class as we sat there that beautiful May evening back in the year 1950.

Out of the mist there appeared in distinct form, Edith Tribble, Barbara Konkle, Patsy Robertson, and who was this girl?—yes, none other than Myrtle Bennet—all about to be arrested for disturbing the peace. And the arresting officer? None other than Jo Beth Meadows, now a woman traffic cop called in to stop the fight. Who would have believed it of Edith, Barbara, Patsy and Myrtle!

The scene changed, and next I was on a circus ground. There at one of the freak shows Barbara Ison, the barker, was shouting through an old dirty megaphone that Mae Page and Anne Lyon, the only living skeletons in existence, might be seen for the whole sum of ten cents—one dime! (Verily, thinness will come to those who w-e-i-g-h-t.)

In the next vision I saw the busy corner at Times Square in New York. There stood a news girl calling, "Extra! Extra! Read all about Carole Lita Keith buying the Atlanta Yellow Jacket Professional Football Team!" Now won't Carole Lita be "Harven" a wonderful time! I seemed to have purchased a paper, and was attracted to an article—a preview of the latest Parisian fashions by Claire Randolph, successor to Edith Hills Coogler who in the old days told us what to wear through the Atlanta Journal. Wondering what was going on in the theatrical world I turned to that page. The head-lines proclaimed that Helen Amendola was starring in "Dumb Bells" written and produced by Bobbye Jean Slater, her old side-kick in the days of the Cecilian plays.

Wondering who the editor of the paper could be, I turned to the editorial page. Behold, there in large print I read, Anne Patjens, Editor. Anne, who had predicted she would never even make a feature editor on the Senior Reader staff. And the strangest surprise of all was the identity of the news girl herself. 'Twas none other than Joy Tasker, who evidently enjoys peddling papers now in preference to editing them.

What is this that appears? A study lined with hundreds of books. Yes, it is Jackie Josey pouring over a desk, piled with books. On the walls hang diplomas from Vassar and Columbia. Not satisfied with a B.A. and a M.A. degree, she is evidently working on a Ph.D.

And now another school study appears. I am transported to Wellesley College. No, surely not! Yes, it is, Gayle Richards, Dean of Women at Wellesley, "Harrold"ing the victory of Wellesley over Bryn Mawr in the swimming meet. Her only regret, it seems, is that she could not compete with the girls as she did in the old Emory pool.

Ah! We are back in Atlanta. Fraternity Row at Tech and Emory have not changed a great deal. Who is that talking to all the boys on the Emory Sigma Chi porch? Oh, it's Betty MacDonald, who is now the House Mother and truly the Sweetheart of All the Sigma Chi boys. It is evidently time for the Mothers' Club meeting at Tech's Sigma Chi House. And see who is the newly elected President,—none other than our beautiful Ann Brockman of the Class of 1950.

A haze, and then—Isn't that the Celtic basketball team? Yes, and co-owned by Mary Kent and Nell Warren. During the "rest" periods, Mary amuses herself playing "Jacks" on the side-line. Nell is official comforter for all who come out of a game with broken teeth.

I knew our girls were athletic but I was surprised when gazing intently at the ball and thinking of Gwen Baker, I was carried next to Madison Square Gardens, where Gwen was being proclaimed the champion wrestler in the world. Among the spectators were Margaret Starr and her husband. Age has not lessened the attractions of our "Rusty".

A fog settled over the ball again. It was so thick I feared it would not clear. This time I was bewildered by the bright lights of Radio City. There on one of the programs at N. B. C., Barbara Thompson was giving advice to the lovelorn, and announced her new book, "How to Get Over the Disappointments of Life". How we did enjoy Barbara's gossip column at dear old Naps. And for goodness sake, listen to Natalie Hull! She has taken over Louella Parson's program. No doubt of its success!

Now I was at the Music Hall. Imagine my surprise when the Rockettes came out, and there were Betty Belle Parsons and Sue Andrews. Such rhythm and such timing to their dancing. I was loath to leave them but the ball was clouding again.

Far from the bright lights I was carried next—and who was this conducting a mission for the children of the East Side? Why I had heard that she was the National Sweetheart of A. T. O. and presumed that she was still a social butterfly, but here was Dianne Maltby giving heart to heart talks to a room-full of juvenile delinquents and Andrea Bethea was leading them in singing hymns of praise, while over at the piano was Carolyn Flemming. A touching scene!

Ripples and clouds again. Another country. Yes, Havana, Cuba, and in military uniform,—I believe W.A.C.'s, were Sheila Wesley and Peggy Lou Davis talking together at a table outside of Sloppy Joe's. To the Casino de Riviera I was quickly carried. There Ann Fife and her husband were playing a roulette wheel, and Ann smiled as the juke box played an old tune, "I Want to Be "Happy", But I Won't Be "Happy", 'Till I Make You "Happy" Too."

Clouds again! And now it was Paris, down in the French Quarter. What a cute little studio! And over at the light was Anne Parsons, just finishing a picture for which she had already been paid a fabulous sum.

It must be true that "Gentlemen Prefer Blonds", for next I saw a happy foursome spending the evening together, Farrar Schultz and Betty Ann Cofer,—with their two boys, Bert and Roy, Jr., helping each other do their home-work.

And then I wondered what had become of the "two-some", Phyllis Caverly and Sara Moss. The scene is changed. New York and its skyline pass over the globe. Much to my surprise here were Sara and Phyllis, two old maids in charge of the largest home for stray cats in the United States. Seems as if their suspicions came true.

The ball clouded again and then cleared completely. The spell was broken. So I put the cloth back and now I sit in reverie. Who am I? You, too, might go crystal gazing.

NAPSONIANA STAFF 1950

PHYLLIS CAVERLY, Editor

With the help of Miss Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. O'Kelly, Miss Morgan, and Mr. Young, we bring you your NAPSONIANA 1950. We have labored long and hard, through magazine campaigns and soliciting ads, in order to finance and publish this annual.

Thanks to all the classes for your co-operation. We hope you like it!

SENIOR READER STAFF

Under the supervision of Miss Rivers and Mrs. Price, and the capable editorship of Joy Tasker, the SENIOR-READER this year upheld the same fine standard it has enjoyed in previous years. Many new features were introduced, and the work of every department in the school was given recognition and applause.

We know that yours was a hard and continuous job, so thanks, Senior-Reader Staff, for a grand paper. We've enjoyed every issue.

QUILL and SCROLL

Quill and Scroll is a national journalistic organization, and the Margaret Mitchell Chapter at Naps is limited to those who have had at least fifty inches of print in either the SENIOR-READER or NAPSONIANA, and are in the upper third of the class.

Particularly do we congratulate Joy and Farrar, who earned their membership last year, but to all the girls we say—'tis an honor well deserved.

To attain membership in Pi Sigma Kappa is the heartfelt wish of every loyal Napsite. But to attain that honor is possible to only a few. One must have an "A" scholastic average for the sophomore and junior years, or must have that average in the junior and first semester senior year. The blue ribbon with white Greek letters is the insignia of these proud Pi Sigma Kappa girls, to whom we say, "Congratulations! You deserve it all!"

RABUN GAP GUILD

The Naps Chapter of the Rabun Gap-Nacoochee Guild was organized just last year. Cooperating with other chapters in raising money to aid the Rabun Gap School, Naps has carried out two successful projects. Good work, girls.

First Row: Tasker, Tribble, Wright, Mewborn. Second row: Bennett, Taylor, Winburn.
Third row: Morris, Findley, Boles, Staten, Strauss.

BIBLE CLUB

The Bible Club encourages deeper and more meaningful study of the Bible, and helps produce Christian leadership among the students. Under the direction of Miss Rivers, many of the meetings were conducted in the homes. As their project for the year the Bible Club entertained the little children at Aidmore down town at Christmastime.

First Row: Baker, Cofer, Berry, Davenport. Second Row: Fraser, Brooks, Alford, Branch.
Third Row Brooks, Hiatt, Flemming, Konkle, Josey.

RED CROSS COUNCIL

The Junior Red Cross is a national organization. Here at Naps these five girls have guided the school in filling Red Cross boxes, bringing baskets of fruit at Thanksgiving, and caring for several needy families at Christmas. Also through them, the various drives, sponsored by the Civic organizations, are brought to the school's attention. Thanks for a good job well done!

GLEE CLUB

Under the direction of Mrs. Stonebraker, the Glee Club made valuable contributions to many of our activities, being entirely responsible for the Easter and Christmas Services. They also added much pleasure to many of our Chapel exercises. We know you worked hard, and we want you to know we really enjoyed your programs.

To gain a better appreciation and a more thorough knowledge of the French language, literature, and life is the purpose of the French Clubs. Monthly meetings under the supervision of Mrs. Kline were most instructive and interesting.

SPANISH CLUBS

Under the leadership of Mrs. Kline, the second year Spanish classes have become better acquainted with the customs and every day vocabulary of the Spanish speaking people. The monthly meetings took the form of informal parties, with a Spanish Guest of Honor each time. What fun! And oh, how much we learned! Adios, Amigos.

The CECILIANS

Only those who have had the experience of "trying out" for the Cecilians, know what that means. And then comes the suspense and happiness when the new Cecilians are announced in Chapel. Two plays are presented each year. "A Date with Judy" was the fall production. The girls deserve a great deal of praise for their splendid success, and their loyal support of this activity.

MARDI GRAS

King and Queen of Mardi Gras: Carole Lita Keith and Carol Carson.

The Three Dukes: Mickie Haynie, Junior; Amelia Berry, Freshman; Jackie Johnson, Sophomore.

The activity entailing more work than any other during the year is Mardi Gras. But the beauty and excitement of the crowning night is a memory that lingers for years in the heart of every Napsite. Carrying out a "song" theme this year, each class vied for the honor of entering the most unique and beautifully decorated float. The Juniors won, their float representing "Dreamer's Holiday", with Carol Carson as Leading Lady. She was later crowned Queen of Mardi Gras, with Carole Lita Keith, Senior Duke, being crowned King. As always, the skits following the presentation of the floats were well prepared and most entertaining. Long live Mardi Gras at Naps!

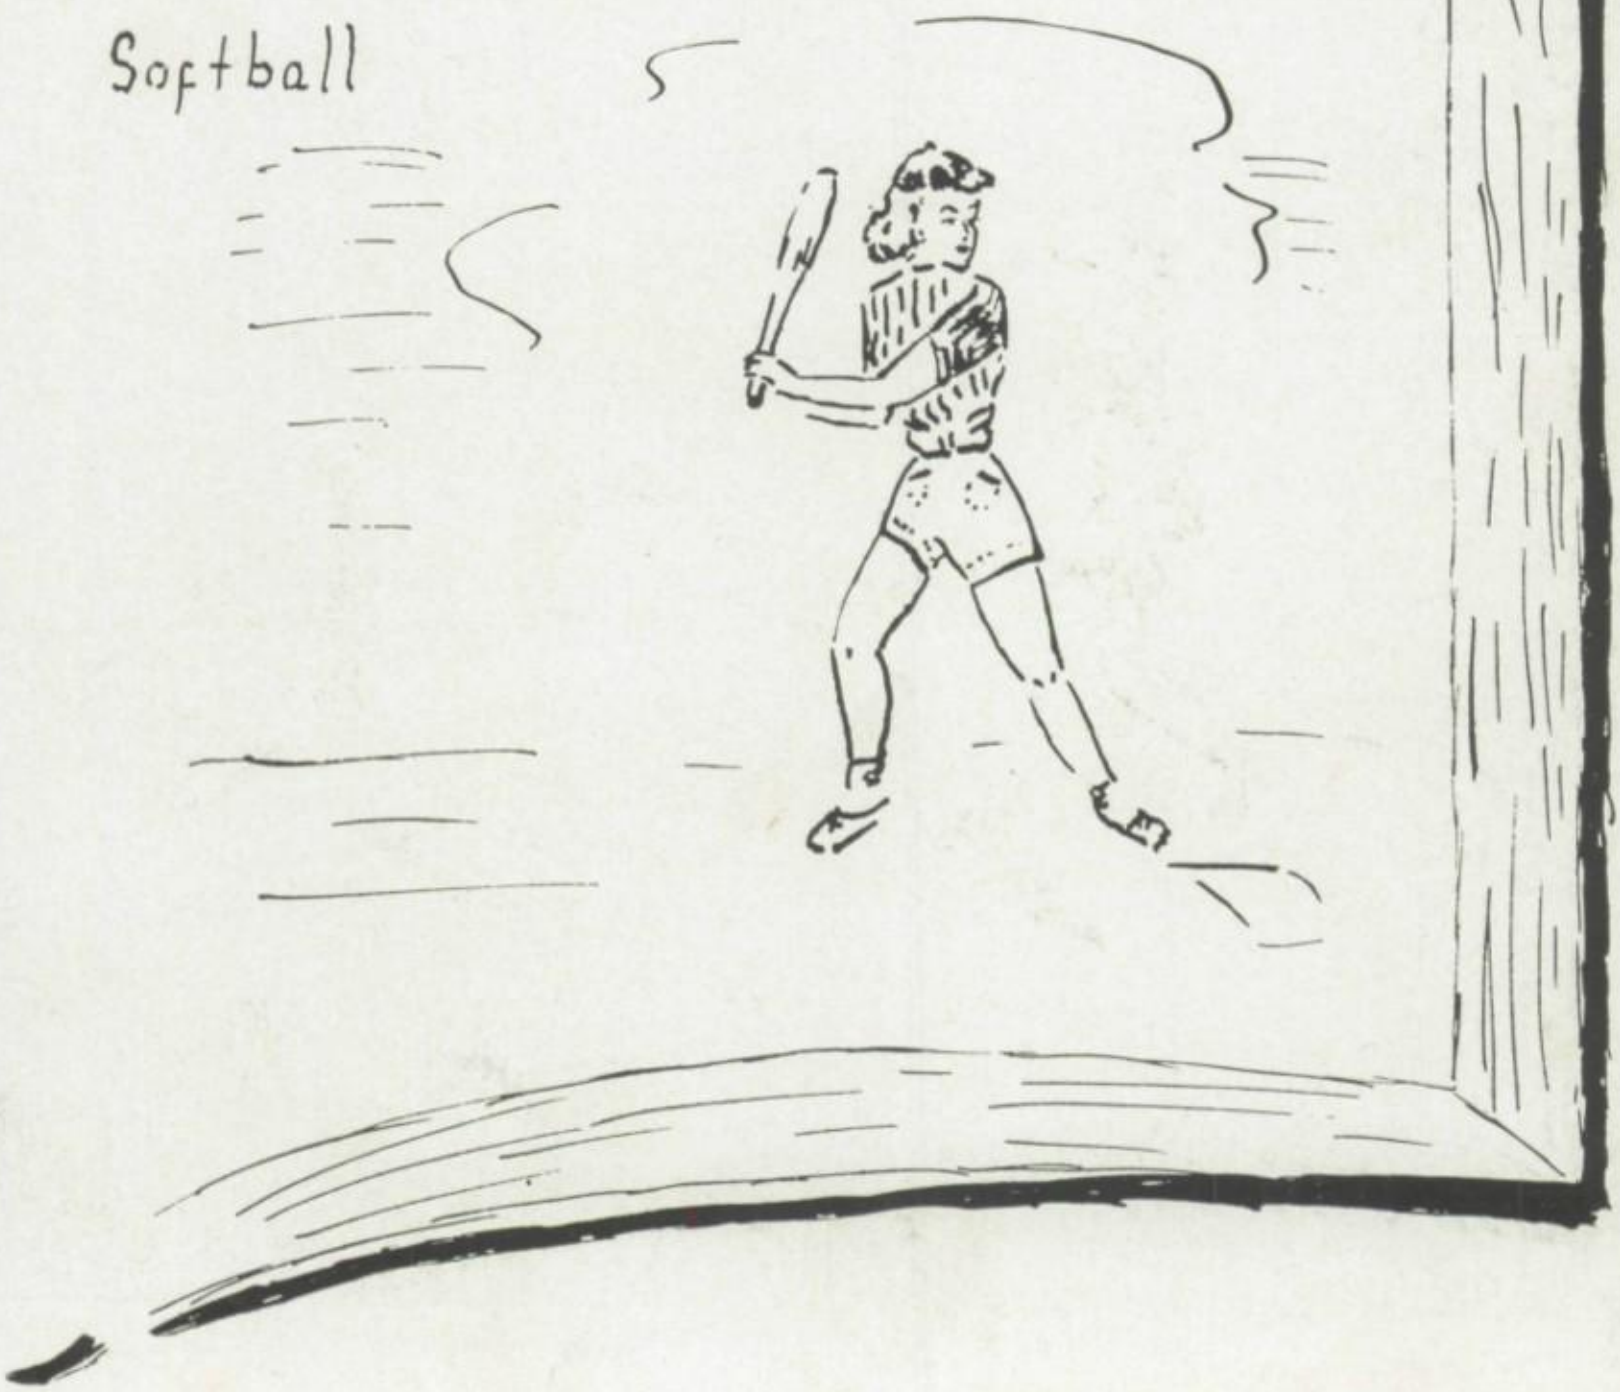
ATHLETICS



ATHLETIC

While basketball is the leading sport in school, there is also definite activity in all of the other sports. Heading these various games are these girls who form the Athletic Board. Much of the success of the various sports is due to their enthusiasm in arousing interest, as well as their personal participation in the game. Thanks for a well-planned athletic program throughout the year.

VARSITY

For four long months these girls who comprised the Varsity team gave up every afternoon to practicing for the "big game". Not just practicing was necessary, either. It meant giving up cokes, candy bars, pastries, and snacks after school and at bedtime. It also meant no late hours, spend-the-night parties, and such.

Perhaps more games were won in former years, but no team ever had more fun. Miss Zittrouer, you're really swell. We enjoyed playing for you.
